Let Us Prepare our Hearts

Rev. April Cranford, Pastor at Westminster

Welcome, Announcements and Opening Prayer

Call to Worship based on Psalm 23

Leader: Our Lord and Our Shepherd makes rest a requirement, leads us toward stillness and righteousness, restores our innermost being, remains with us in the darkest of valleys, prepares a feast before us, anoints us with healing, and chases after us with goodness and mercy.

May our response be found in not want or fear, but in dwelling with our Lord together. Let us worship our Good Shepherd.

The Hymn of Praise

Tell Me the Stories of Jesus (lyrics on last page)

Let Us Confess

Rev. Dr. Wray Sherman, Pastor at Hermitage

Call and Prayer of Confession, Assurance of Pardon

We come before you as David did, weary, worn, and frightened. As he wrote and sang the words of Psalm 23, may these words wash over our fears and bring healing to our souls. Forgive us when we turn our gaze off of you, forgetting that you abide with us. Forgive us for not trusting you to lead us to still waters or to paths of righteousness. Forgive us for not crying out to You sooner, as we try to conquer our fears in our own strength. Father and Good Shepherd, turn our hearts toward you as we receive your streams of mercy and a peace that passes all understanding. Use us to be the salt and the light, spreading the good news of truth, love and hope found in Jesus Christ our Lord, in whose name we pray. Amen.

Sung Response

Glory to God

Glory to God, whose goodness shines on me, and to the Son, whose grace has pardoned me, and to the Spirit, whose love has set me free. As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be, Amen. World without end, without end, Amen. As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be, Amen.

Let Us Respond to the Word

Affirmation of Faith, The Apostles' Creed Jen Jones, Elder at First
I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, And in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic Church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

Prayers for the People & Lord's Prayer Rev. Dr. Wray Sherman, Pastor at Hermitage
Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

Lyrics

Tell Me the Stories of Jesus

Tell me the stories of Jesus I love to hear;
Things I would ask Him to tell me, if He were here.
Scenes by the wayside, tales of the sea,
Stories of Jesus, tell them to me.

First let me hear how the children stood round His knee,
And I shall fancy His blessing resting on me;
Words full of kindness, deeds full of grace,
All in the lovelight, of Jesus' face.

Into the city I'd follow the children's band,
Waving a branch of the palm tree high in my hand;
One of His heralds, yes, I would sing
Loudest hosannas, "Jesus is King!"

My Shepherd Will Supply My Need

My shepherd will supply my need; Jehovah is his name.
In pastures fresh he makes me feed, beside the living stream.
He brings my wandering spirit back when I forsake his ways, and leads me, for his mercy's sake, in paths of truth and grace.

When I walk through the shades of death your presence is my stay;
one word of your supporting breath drives all my fears away.
Your hand, in sight of all my foes, does still my table spread;
my cup with blessings overflows; your oil anoints my head.

The sure provisions of my God attend me all my days;
O may your house be my abode, and all my work be praise.
There would I find a settled rest, while others go and come;
no more a stranger, or a guest, but like a child at home.
