Music Notes for January 17

Josef Rheinberger

Lichtenstein, compared.

Three of the pieces you will hear in this week's service were composed by Josef Rheinberger (1839-1901). The prolific composer of a dozen masses, symphonies, operas, chamber music and choral works was born in Liechtenstein. Rheinberger also wrote scores of pieces for organ and held his first organist position at the tender age of 7! He spent much of his career teaching at the Munich Conservatory, where his pupils included Richard Strauss and Englebert Humperdinck (composer of Hansel and Gretel). For the prelude and special music, we welcome

Jacob Roege

Jake Roege back to our Sanctuary. Jake has played at FPC on numerous occasions, including many Lessons and Carols services. He maintains a violin studio in Charlottesville and teaches violin at both JMU and EMU in Harrisonburg. Jake also serves as assistant concertmaster for the Waynesboro Symphony Orchestra.

For the literary types.

In the midst of an uncertain time, the session is working hard to discern the direction and scope of our ministry. These are challenging days for the church, but even as we are forced to curtail many of our usual activities, the work goes on - in the preschool, in the office, on the phone and across the internet.

Please return your pledge card as a reminder to yourself and a planning aid for the session; if you have not received one, give us a call! Mail your pledges and contributions to:
